

Thank you notes

May 13, 2010

Positive impact

Thanks for an outstanding United Way Day of Action.

United Way of Monroe County extends a warm thank you to each volunteer who helped make the 15th Annual Spring Day of Action a success. More than 180 community members showed how they “Live United” by volunteering at 17 local social service agencies. On Wednesday, April 14, these energetic volunteers performed a variety of tasks such as reading to children, mulching gardens, washing windows, cleaning playground equipment and painting office space and murals.

Many staff, students, and clients from Monroe Bank, American Humanics (Indiana University), Aurora Alternative High School, Bloomington Volunteer Network, Gamma Nu of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Indiana University Office of Service-Learning, University Information Technology Services, and Transitional Services Inc. contributed time and energy to strengthening the nonprofit sector of our community. Thank you.

A special thanks also goes out to the social service agencies and child care centers that hosted volunteers: American Red Cross, Amethyst House, Area 10 Agency on Aging, Big Brothers Big Sisters of South Central Indiana, Boys and Girls Clubs of Bloomington, Campus View Child Care Center, Children’s Village, Middle Way House — The Rise, Monroe County United Ministries, Mother Hubbard’s Cupboard, Options, Penny Lane Day Care West, SCCAP Head Start, Stone Belt Arc, United Way Born Learning, Volunteers in Medicine, WonderLab Museum of Science, Health, and Technology and Youth Services Bureau.

Plus a hearty thanks to Jimmy John’s, Marsh Supermarket, Bloomington Bagel Company, Bloomington Playwrights Project, Eagle Pointe Golf Resort, Kroger Stores, Master Rental Center, Noodles & Company, Pizza X, Penn Station East Coat Subs, The Pita Pit, Rural Transit, Subway (West), and Target for donating items, services and gift cards to help make the event successful.

We extend our gratitude to speakers Beth Krouse, executive director of Big Brothers Big Sisters of South Central Indiana, and Judy Sharp, United Way Campaign chairwoman and Monroe County assessor, who helped energize volunteers and recognize United Way Campaign leaders.

Thank you for helping to positively impact our community through your service and commitment.

United Way of Monroe County